Field & Other Activities

- ARGOS GPS tagged birds migrating through Slave Lake, AB, Canada (April 2016) Boelman Project
- Vegetation/soil/permafrost surveys from Yu’pik in Yukon-Kuskokwim Delta, AK (July 2016) Frost Project
- Physical disturbance surveys & hunters/fishers/trappers/gatherers equipped with camera GPS to document environmental disturbances influencing access to/travel across harvest areas in Interior AK (July 2016) Brinkman Project
- Dall sheep GPS tagging & snow surveys in Wrangell-St. Elias Nat. Park (Sept) Prugh Project
- Survey effects of Ekati Diamond Mine disturbances on Bathurst caribou in NWT, Canada (Aug 2016) Chen (CCRS) Project
- ABoVE Fairbanks logistics office utilized for training, staging, equipment use & storage, etc.
- Extensive compilation of remote sensing & animal movement data is being compiled
- Several PhD Students & Postdocs hired

Stakeholder Engagement

- Gathering of Yu’pik community on Traditional Ecological Knowledge in Yukon-Kuskokwim Delta, AK (July 2016) Frost Project
- Engaged 9 AK rural communities and several Tribal entities in community-based monitoring and participatory research (July 2016) Brinkman Project
- Held informational webinar on ABoVE and project specifics (December 2015) Boelman Project
- Newsletter circulated to update collaborators and stakeholders on project accomplishments to date (Aug 2016) Boelman Project

Education & Outreach

- Earth-to-Sky webinar – Using Dall Sheep as Bellwethers of Alpine Ecosystem Health (June 2016) Prugh Project
- Elementary schools – developed classroom materials paired with presentations and an interactive field blog for hundreds of school children in NY (spring 2016) Boelman Project
- Canadian media - initial results of migratory bird journeys appeared in the Calgary Herald & Edmonton Journal newspapers (summer 2016) Boelman Project

[Image of wildlife and ABoVE logo]